GO GENTLY THROUGH THE YEARS,
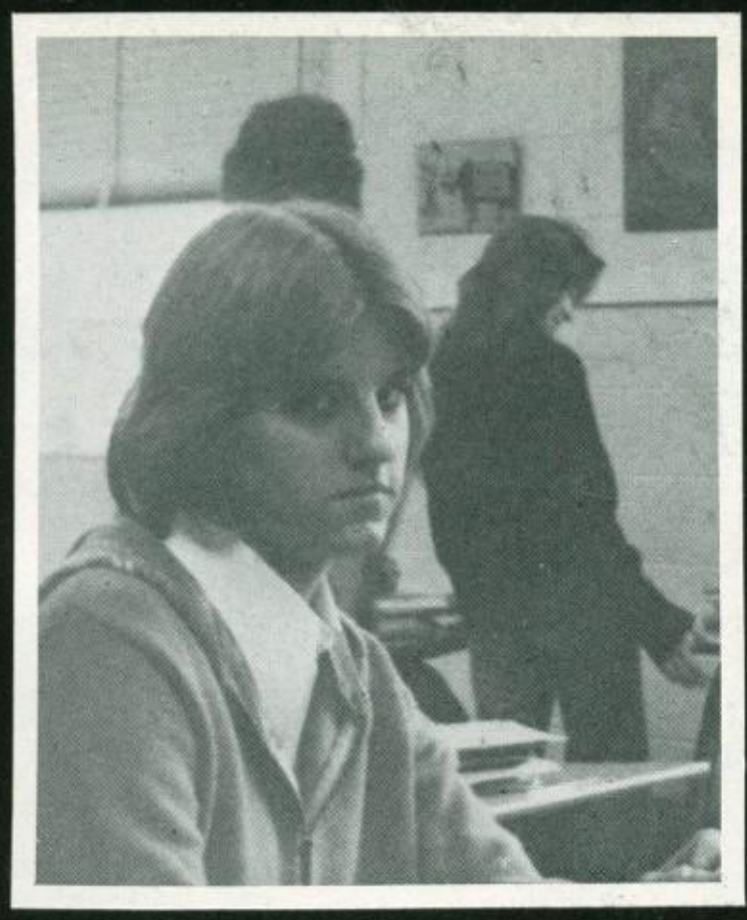
BUT GO WITH STRENGTH,

1971, Word, Inc. All rights reserved. Used by special permission.

DON'T BE ASHAMED OF TEARS,

OF ANGER
OR OF FEARS.



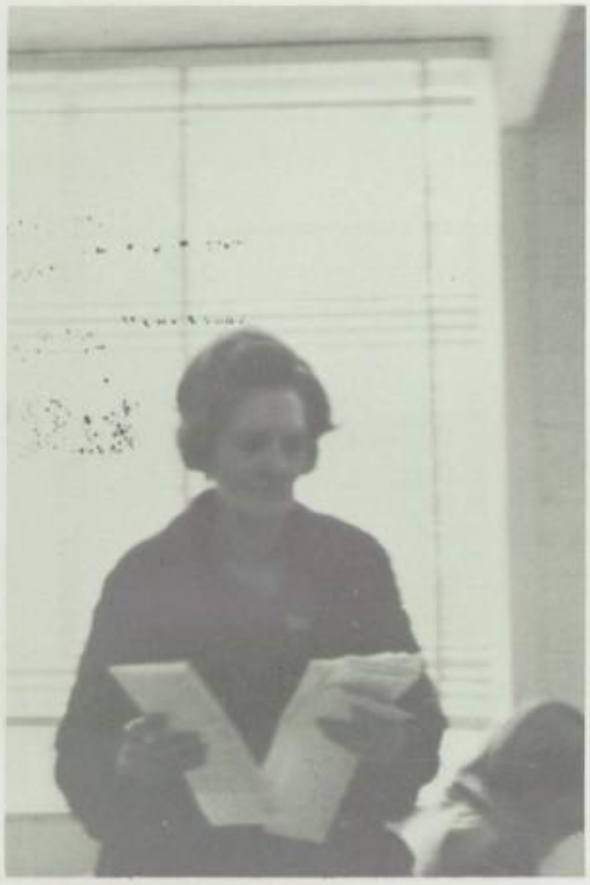
FOR THEY'RE A PART
OF YOU AND
YOU'RE ALIVE!

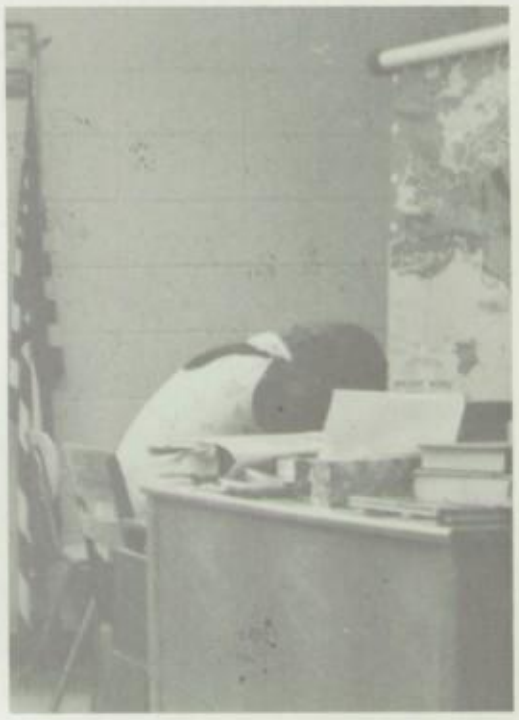
GO FIRMLY THROUGH

THE NIGHT,–

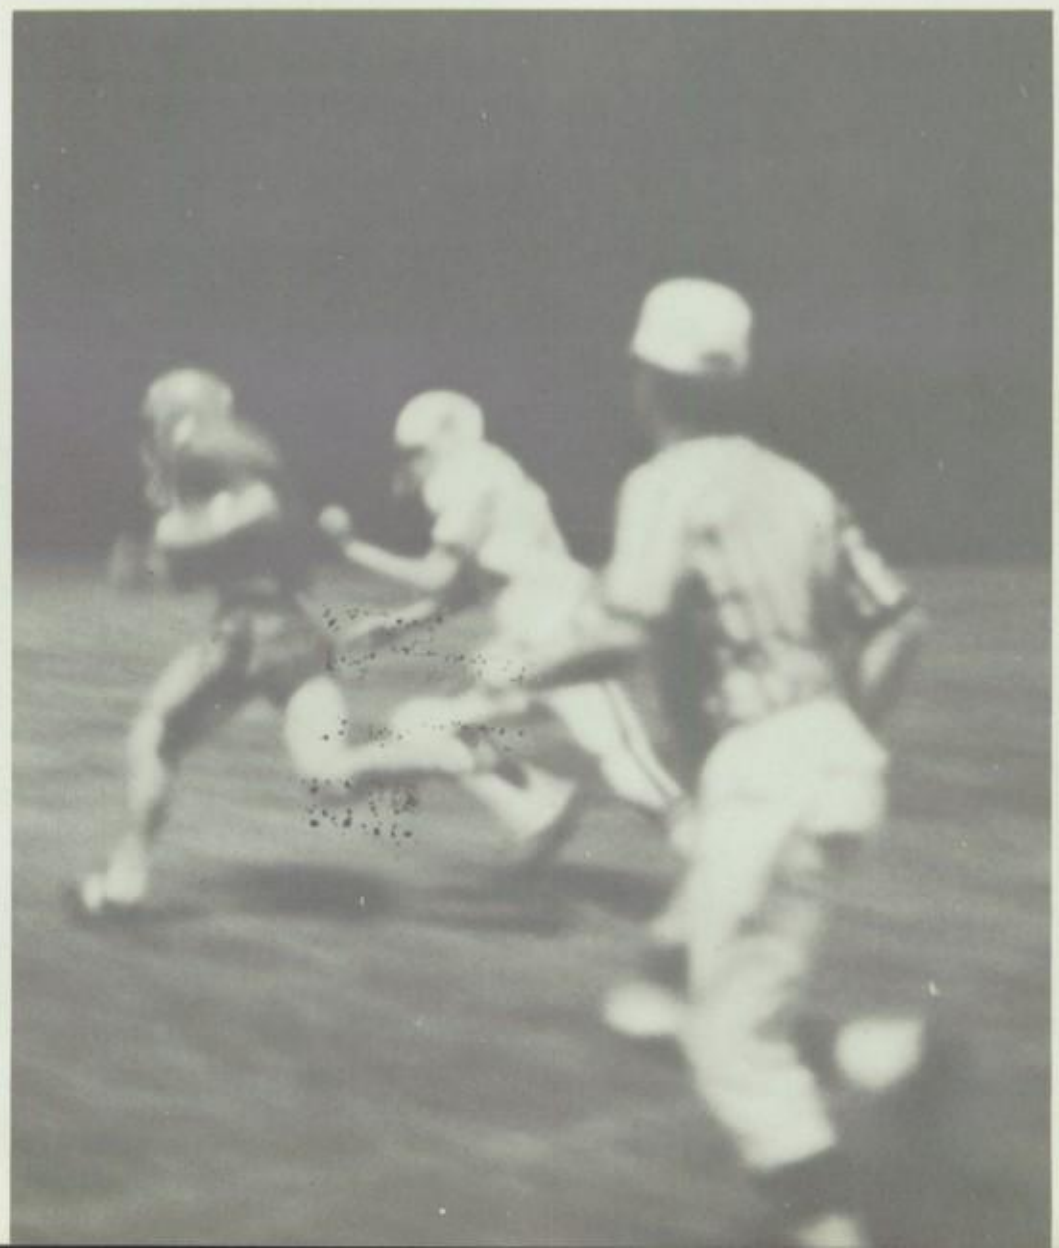
BUT GO IN PEACE.

KNOW FOR YOURSELF WHAT'S RIGHT,–

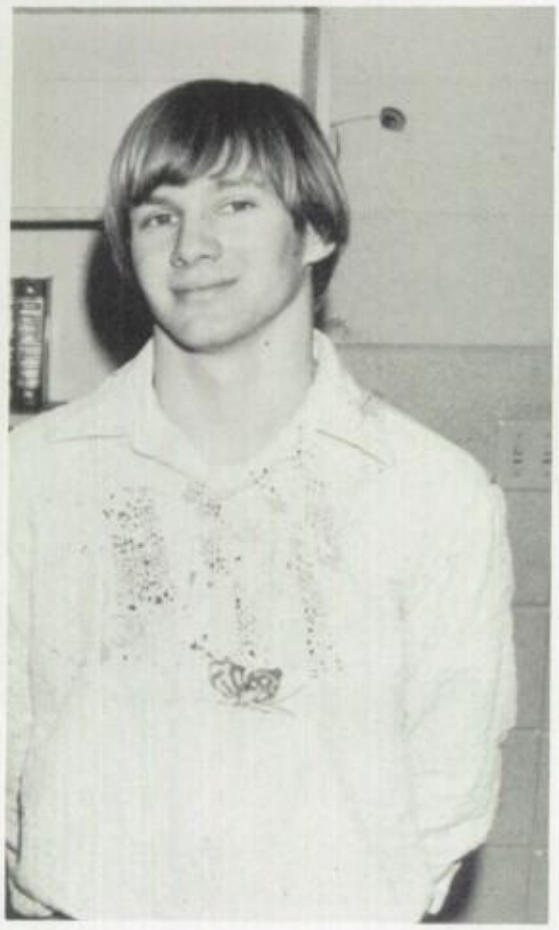




KEEP ALL YOUR GOALS IN SIGHT,–

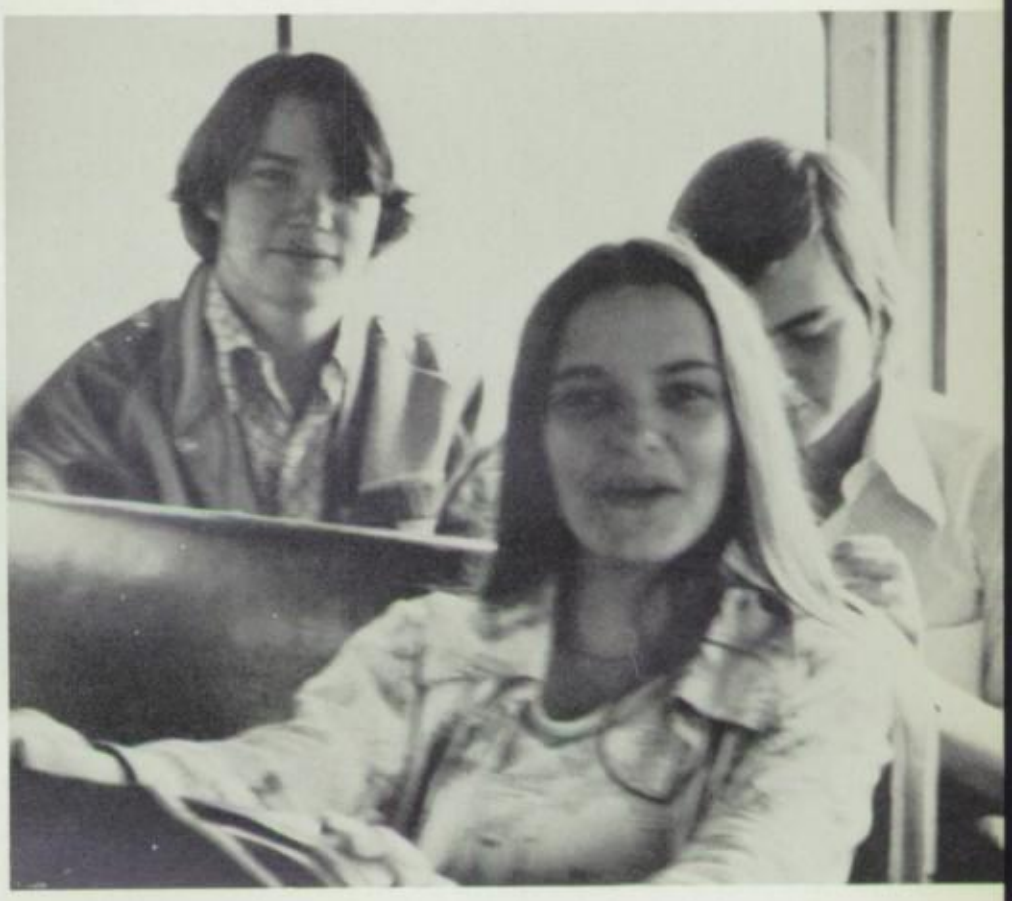


FOR THEY'RE A PART
OF YOU AND
YOU'RE ALIVE!



WALK BRAVELY
THROUGH EACH DAY,

AND GO IN PRIDE.

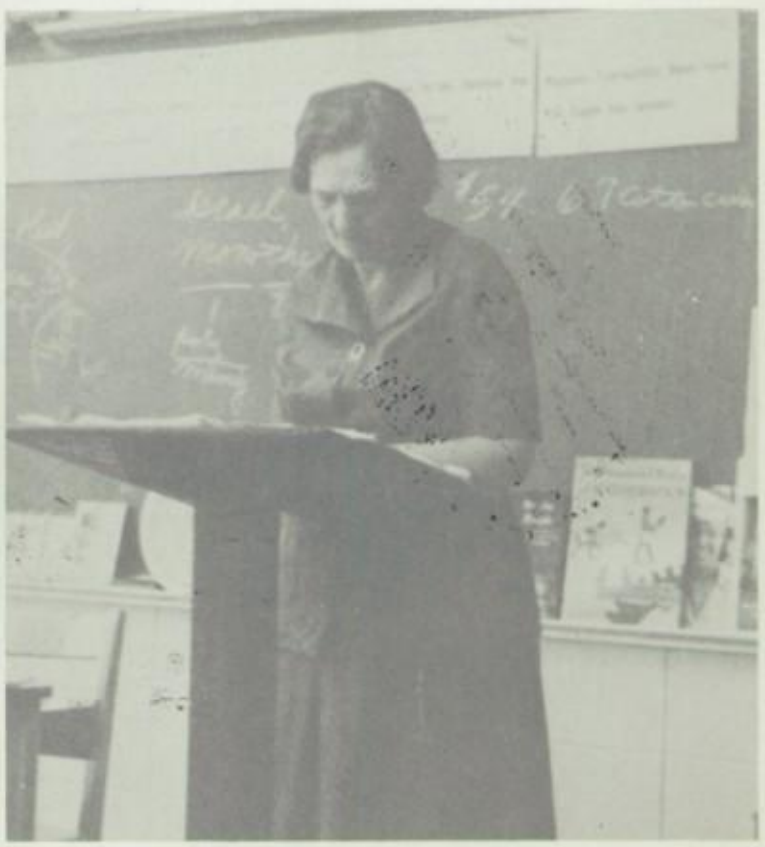


SHOW THAT YOU KNOW

THE WAY,

IN THING YOU DO AND SAY

DO AND SAY,

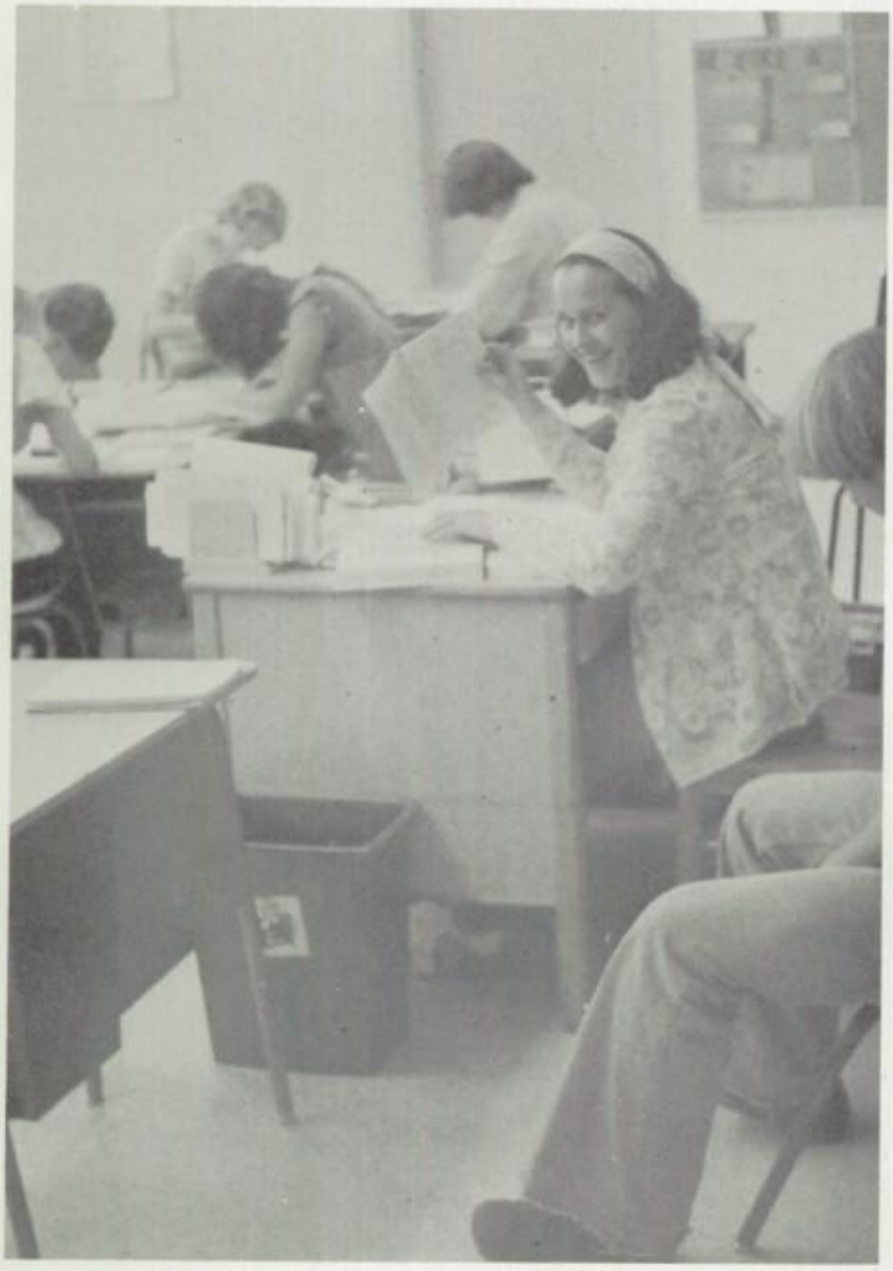


FOR THEY'RE A PART OF YOU AND YOU'RE ALIVE!

CLIMB MOUNTAINS
WHILE YOU MAY–

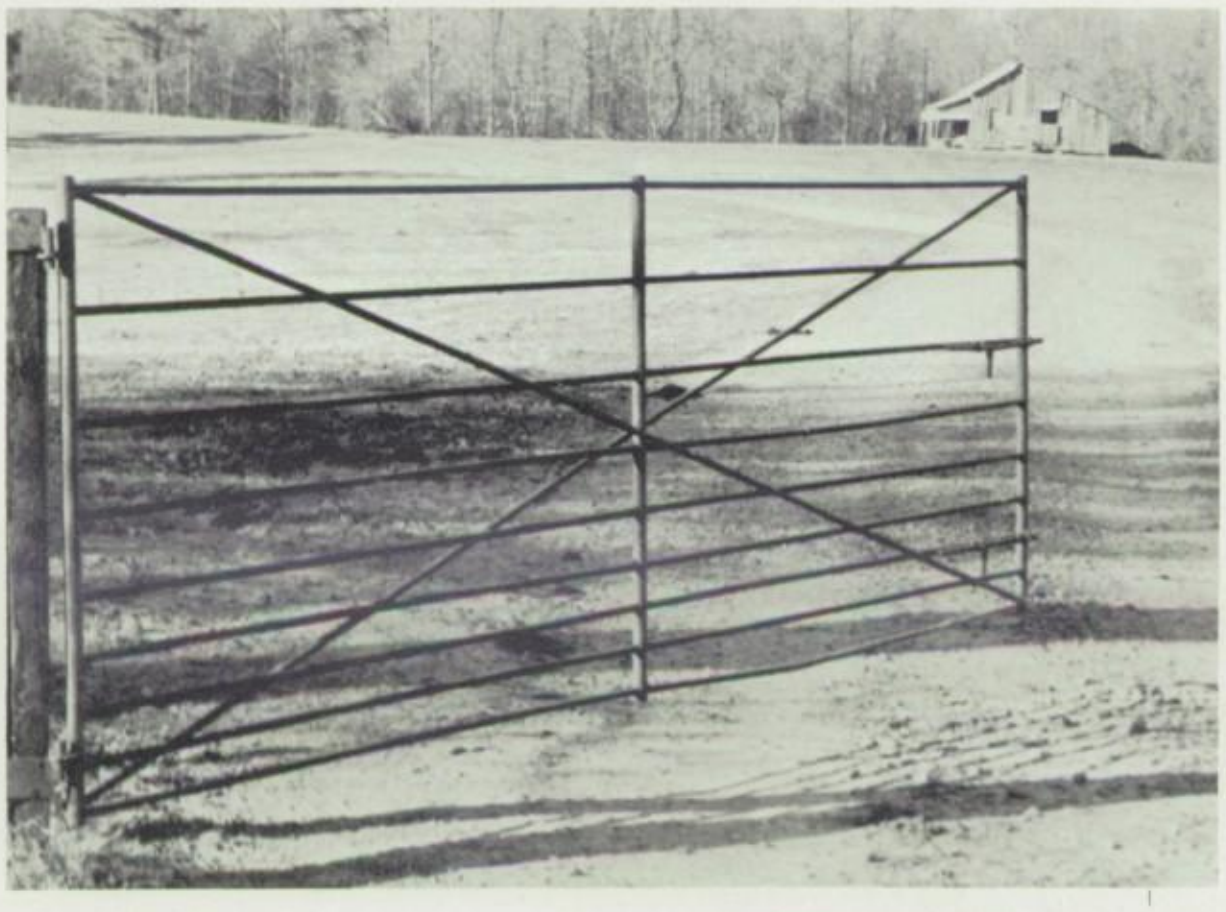
AND SING YOUR SONGS.

START LIVING EVERYDAY,



IT WON'T BE LONG...

BEFORE YOU TURN AROUND
AND WONDER
WHERE LIFE'S GONE.



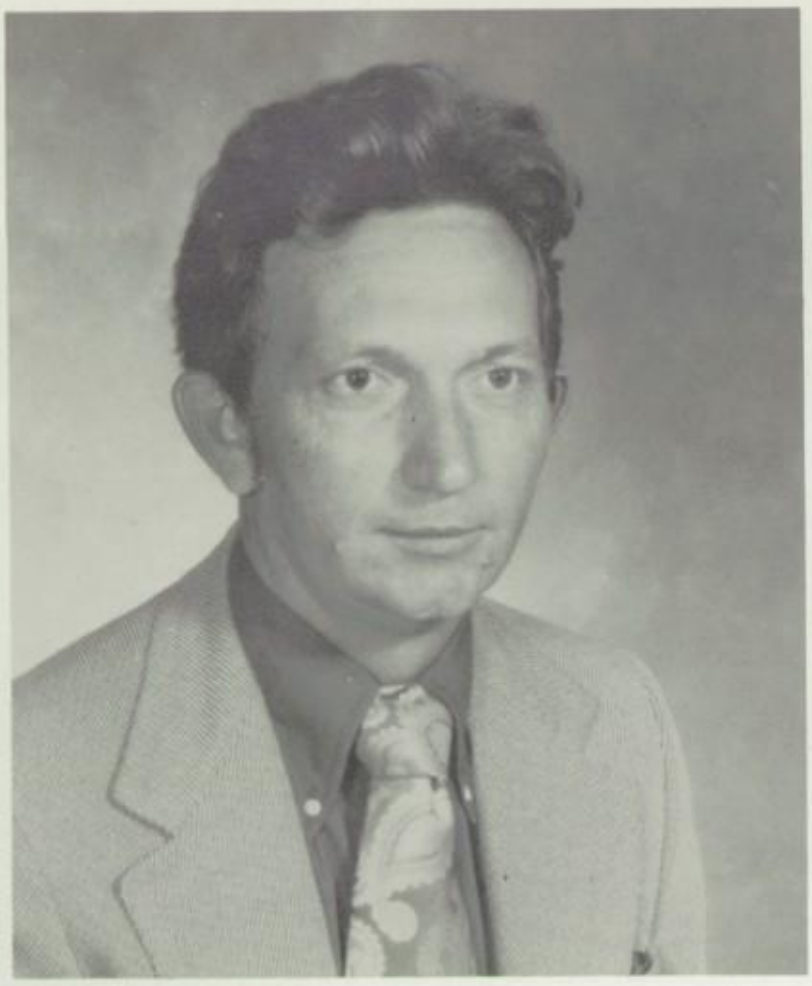
"Mrs. Worrell will always be the fondest memory I have of Rebul. I know that because of her, my life has been enriched with a new love for life that she has. The respect and admiration that many have for her will be dedication enough for a lady that has enriched so many with her life."

Signed:
A First Year Teacher

DEDICATION

Now in her 9th year at Rebul Academy, Mrs. Worrell teaches World History, American History, Miss. History, and Social Studies. In the picture above, she is seen giving the type of personal help for which she has become known. Mrs. Worrell's loyalty to Christ, to Rebul Academy, and to the task of helping others gain a deep insight to history and their personal role in it's making has won the respect and affection of students, faculty, and a host of others far and near. In terms of service to Rebul Academy and service to education, she is "Miss Rebul Academy."

"My nine years at Rebul Academy have been hard work, rising early to study four and five history lessons and grading papers until I fall asleep at night. That's the hard part. I love school. I love children, their parents, their grandparents. Now that their children are in school I love them, too. To greet them at auxiliary meetings, ballgames, Bingo parties, our annual chicken barbeque, and all the happy hours of working together gives a sense of pride and strength for American democracy. Long Live Rebul! 'What doth the Lord require of thee, but to do justly, and to Love, be merry, and to walk humbly with thy God?' " Mrs. Worrell



Mr. Edwin Hood, Principal

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

"When people are in full possession of themselves,
When they really know who they are and are who they are,
that's when they can really open themselves to others."

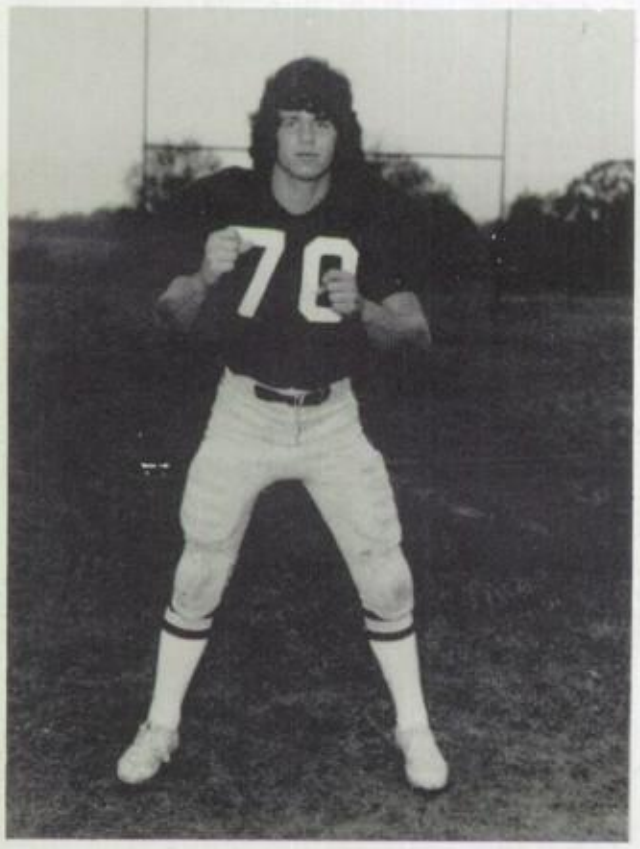
IN MEMORY of Timothy Purvis who was buried Jan. 26, 1976. Timothy was a tenth grade student, Class Officer, Class Favorite, All-Conference Football Guard. Having made adequate preparation for death, Timothy knew how to live and he enjoyed living. We can understand why God wanted Timothy. We are sure that Heaven is a happier place with Timothy's smile and friendly personality.

Timothy



AWAY

I cannot say, and I will not say
That he is dead–He is just away!
With a cheery smile, and a wave of the hand,
He has wandered into an unknown land;
And left us dreaming how very fair
It needs must be, since he lingers there.
And you–O you, Who the wildest yearn
For the old-time step and the glad return,
Think of him faring on, as dear
In the love of There
As the love of Here.

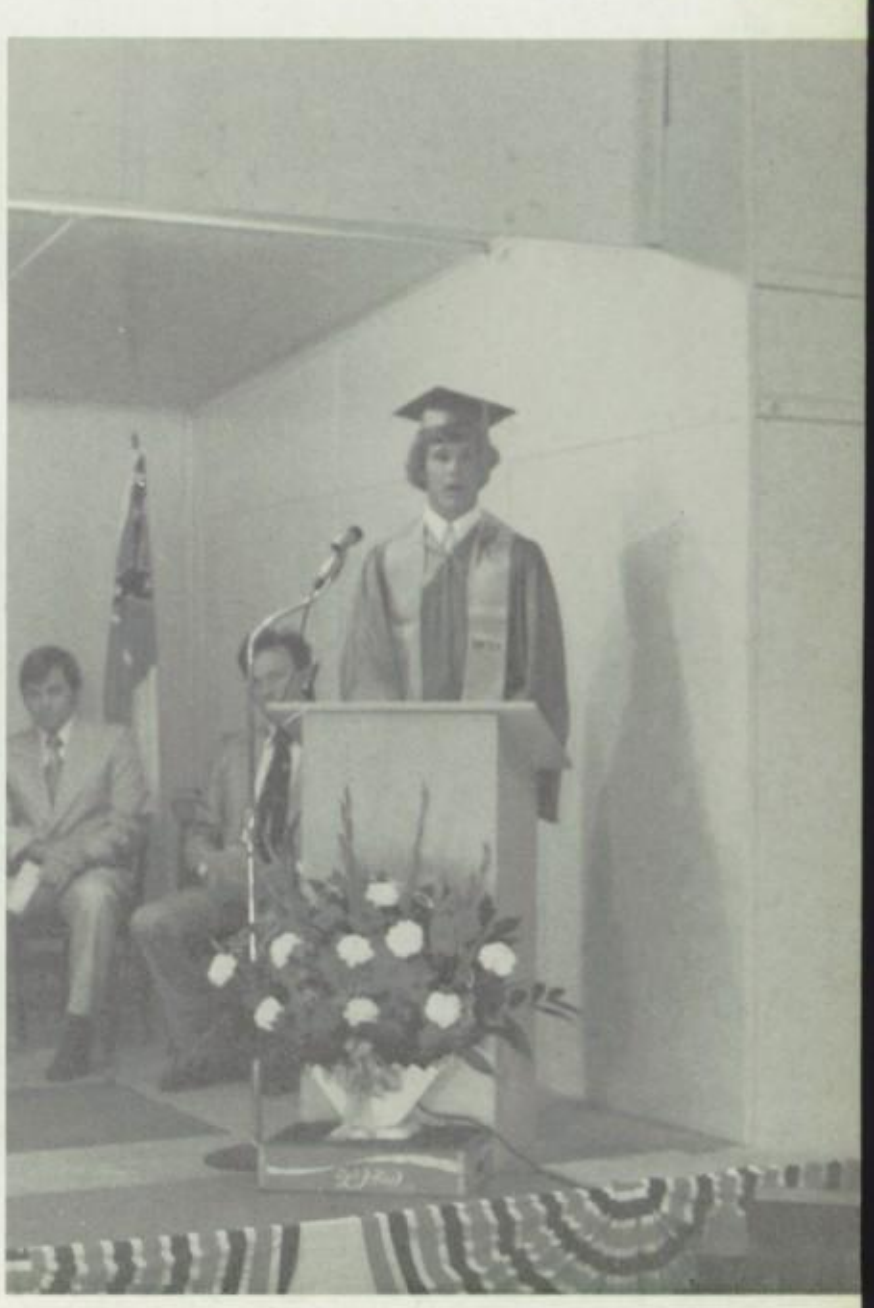
Valedictorian

Charles Cannada,
Class President



SIXTH GRADE GRADUATION

The sixth grade graduation exercises which were held on Wednesday, May 19, were the climax of the year for Rebul's sixth graders. The program, directed by Mrs. Kathi Hood, was the result of much hard work by the class and their parents and teachers. The graduation ceremony featured members of the class singing and reciting poetry. Performing was the Girls' Quartet, made up of Jenny McKenzie, Jane Montgomery, Janet Dean, and Pam Nixon, and accompanied by Allison Alford; also, the Boys' Duet featuring Leeron Green, and Jimmy Hall. To close the program, Mr. E.E. Hood presented the class with diplomas.

SPRING CONCERT

The Chorus presented its Spring Concert on May 6. It featured Bicentennial numbers as well as other popular songs. Along with the whole chorus, several special groups preformed. They were the Octet, the Ensemble, and a Duet composed of Kim Morrison and Masa Liles. The program was the climax of a year of hard work for Rebul's choral groups.

One of the highlights of the year for the Chorus was a trip to the MPSA State Choral Festival held at Indianola Academy. This trip was the result of much hard work by Chorus members, both in learning Festival music, and in raising money for the trip. While at Festival, the Octet was adjudicated and rated Superior, and selected to preform at the Concert held on the last night of the two-day meeting.

ANNUAL CHICKEN BAR-B-QUE

There's a WHAT in that pan?

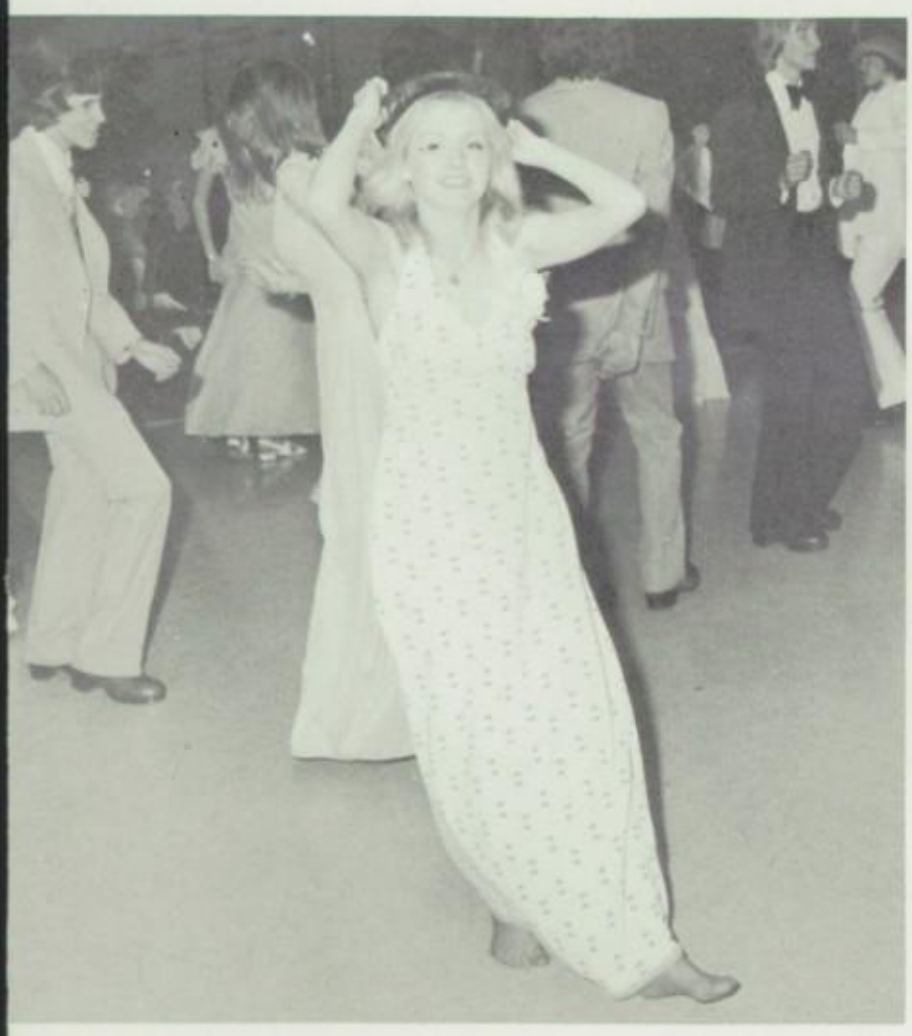
Finger lickin' good!

Smile, you're on Candid Camera!!

Rebul's Annual Chicken Bar-B-Que and Raffle proved to be a great success. Along with providing funds for the school's operation, it gave folks an opportunity to have a "plain ole good time"!

JR-SR PROM

The Way We Were 1776-1976 was the theme chosen by the Juniors for the 1976 Prom. It was held in the Ramada Inn in Vicksburg. Delicious food and lovely Bicentennial decorations filled the room. Two breakfasts followed: Seniors at Deedy McCrory's and Juniors at Pam Cole's.



PARADE OF FAVORITES AND BEAUTY PAGEANT

FEATURES

The most exciting event of the year was the Bicentennial Beauty Pageant and Parade of Favorites. Outstanding program personalities included Elizabeth Smelley, mistress of ceremonies, and Beth Milner who provided entertainment. The highlight of the evening was the crowning of Rebul's Most Beautiful and Most Handsome.

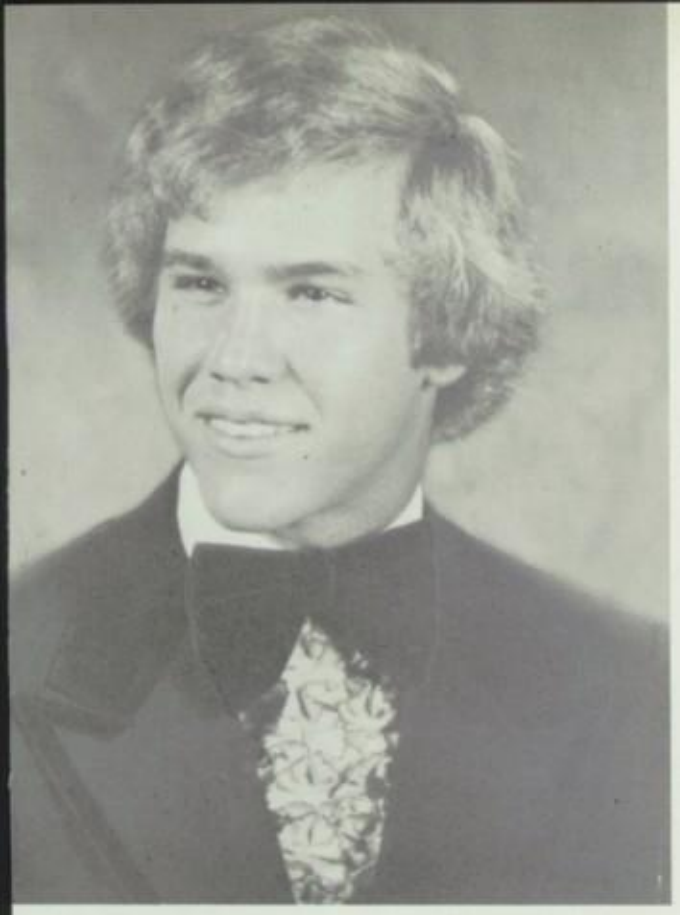
STAR TEACHER and STAR STUDENT

Deirdre McCrory and Mrs. Nancy Belknap

HALL OF FAME



Charles Cannada

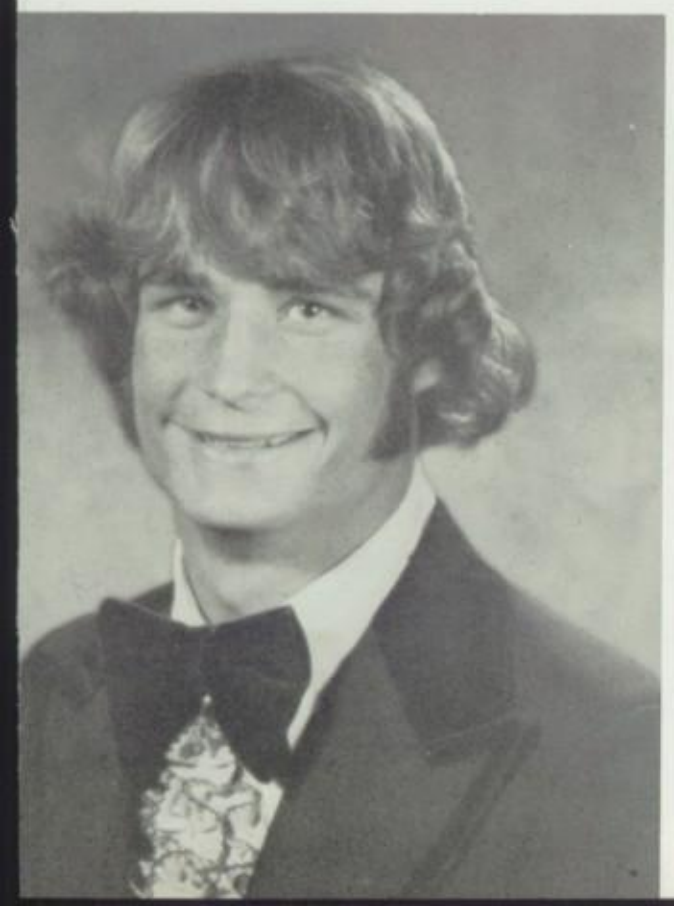
The student body elected Charles as Most Likely to Succeed, Most Admired, and 1975 Most Handsome. He has served as President of Beta Club and Senior class. He was selected as an All Conference football player. Other honors include: membership in Beta Club for 4 years, Student Council and Tri-Captain.

"Rebul Academy as seen through my eyes
For 7 years has given me a great time;
The students are alright
The teachers are so so
And that football team
Man, what a great way to go."

"I have enjoyed my years at Rebul for several reasons. The teachers showed a personal interest in me as a student. Some of my teachers have proved to be close friends. I have developed some friendships that will last forever. I can honestly say that my memories of Rebul will be happy ones."

Susan Holik

Susan is best known for her senior year as editor of the Rebul Review when under her guidance our school hosted the Academy Press Associated delegates spring meeting. She holds membership in Beta Club and Student Council. Other honors she has earned include: Class officer, cheerleader, Homecoming Maid, D.A.R. Good Citizen and Most Courteous.



Ernest Mathes

The student body has elected Ernest Mathes to reign as Mr. R.A., the highest honor given by the student body. He also is listed in Who's Who Among American High Schools. Ernest loves to play hard and has shown great sportsmanship in being selected All Conference Player and Most Valuable player and honored Tri-Captain. Ernest holds membership in Beta Club and was elected class officer and Cutest Couple.

"During this day and time people depend upon the help of friends. Where do you find and make friends? Well, there's a lot of sports and activities going on at Rebul. Rebul combines its warmth and caring with its teaching to prepare the pupils for the outside world. People, who attend Rebul, should support it and keep it together for they have a good thing going. I'm going to stand behind them for as long as they last—and they will last forever."

SENIOR CLASS WILL

Beth Fancher, gives to Danny Bell, her front desk in English and hopes he does well.

From Ronny Crawford to Billy Boykin, he will give, all of his Saturday nights for him to live.

Left to Jean Brasfield by Sam, is his favorite library book, Green Eggs and Ham.

Dexter Allen leaves to Pam Cole, his sharp-looking Chevy that is black as coal.

Karen Curtis receives from Deedy McCrory, her talent of writing winning short stories.

From Ronny Crawford, Linda receives his Micky Mouse Shirt to wear when he leaves.

Becky Hubbard wills to Leslie Ellis, her rose garden with a fifty-foot trellis.

To Rusty Emrick, given by Chuck, his winning smile along with "Good Luck."

From Deedy McCrory to Pam Curtis she leaves her way of making straight A's with the greatest of ease.

Billy Hubbard leaves to Wayne his physics homework that gave him so much pain.

Peggy Brown wills to Mary Lynn, her motto for a good seamstress, "Rip it out and do it again."

Laurin Yates wants Stuart Caldecott to get all of the pieces to her worn out practice set.

Kay Emrick will leave her royal title of Homecoming Queen, to Missy Kendrick to wear the crown for all to be seen.

To Lisa Lewis from Don Russell, the neat way he does the hussle.

Bill Lewis gets from Clyde Strong, all of his Monday mornings that somehow went wrong.

Laurin leaves her part in the play, to Torey Little to use some day.

Marla Martin receives from Camille Lee her precious jar of live honey bees.

Debbie Ammons, with out a care, wills to Darlene Cranfield her long brown hair.

Deedy McCrory wills to Tammy McClain, her writing ability and all of her well-known fame.

Karen Scott leaves to Susan McMurchy, her nickname given by George Walton, "Turkey."

Cecille Lee bequeths to Rachel McWilliams, all the good times she had watching psychology films.

George Walton leaves to Kim, all of his loyal fans that will miss him.

Masa Liles gives to Clair Price, her pink eye shadow and green fingernail polish that looks so nice.

Charles Cannada leaves to Lamar, his good looks and modesty and hopes he goes far.

Karen Scott leaves to Lisa Shipp, her nickname in basketball, "Crip."

Ernest Mathes gives to Scooter Simmons, his football glory with all the trimmin's.

Susan Holik who is quite small bequeths to Lorena Smathers her motto "Think Tall."

Joe Liddell leaves to Donald Ray, his favorite day, the 17th of May.

Billy Hubbard gives to Brooke Worrell his brains, that don't work on Monday's or when it rains.

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

Dexter Allen, who is good with the verse, is now in a contest for Mr. Universe.

Debbie Ammons, who in our play was Jill, is now tumbling after Jack down a hill.

The hard-working girl named Peggy Brown now has her own treasury, the biggest bank in town.

Charles Cannada for President he did run, and is now working as the bossman in Washington.

Ronny Crawford whom the class did like, is now owner of the Honda Motor Bikes.

Florence Cage, the girl with red hair, is now collecting diamonds that are so rare.

Kay Emrick, Miss R.A., is now a waitress in a local cafe.

Sweet blonde-haired Beth Fancher is now married to a rich Texas rancher.

Susan Holik, the editor of the Rebul News, turned out to be the hidden heiress of Howard Hughes.

Becky Hubbard, whom everyone knows, is now appearing on T.V. Game Shows.

Billy Hubbard, with ambitions so high, is now a pilot flying in the sky.

Our Salutatorian, Camille Lee, has just struck oil out in the sea.

Our reporter, Cecille, is now working with Barbara Walters on NBC.

Now everyone knows cool Joe Liddell, expecially after he owns 100 oil wells.

Masa Liles, with Beauty so rare, is now modeling for Glamour magazine with such flare.

Our Star Student, Deddy McCory, is currectly writing her 20th best-selling short story.

Ernest Mathes, with so much gall, is now at the Superdome playing football.

Sam Ogelsby who has so many nicknames is filling in for J.J., winning a lot of fame.

Don Russell, who works with bees, is now playing Tarzan, swinging from the trees.

Karen Scott, who is hotter than hot, is now a famous Harlem Globe Trotter.

Chuck Townsend, whom we thought was so weak and small, is a midget wrestler, the biggest one of all.

George Walton, who likes all the pearls, is now on the coast, looking for girls.

Laurin Yates, leading lady in our play, is now performing on good ole' Broadway.

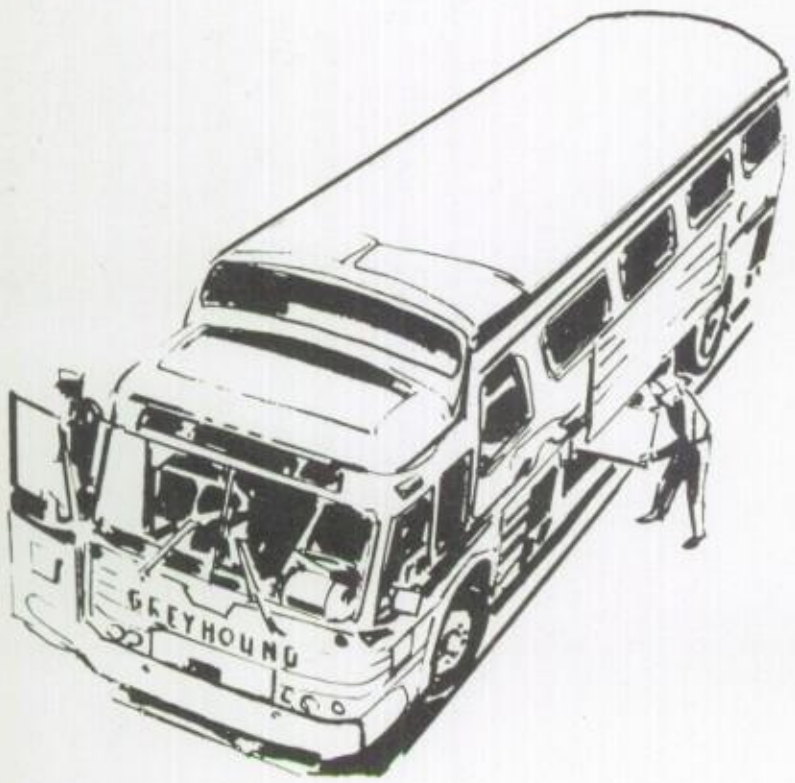
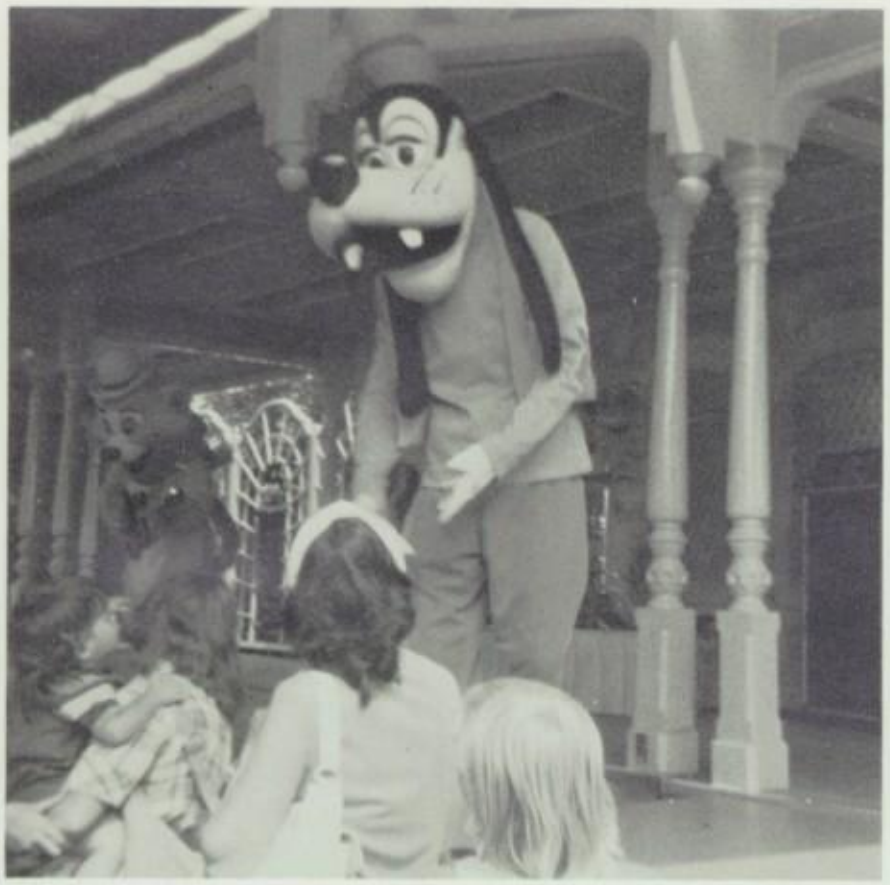
CLASS OF '76 ENJOYS WEEK OF "FUN IN THE SUN"

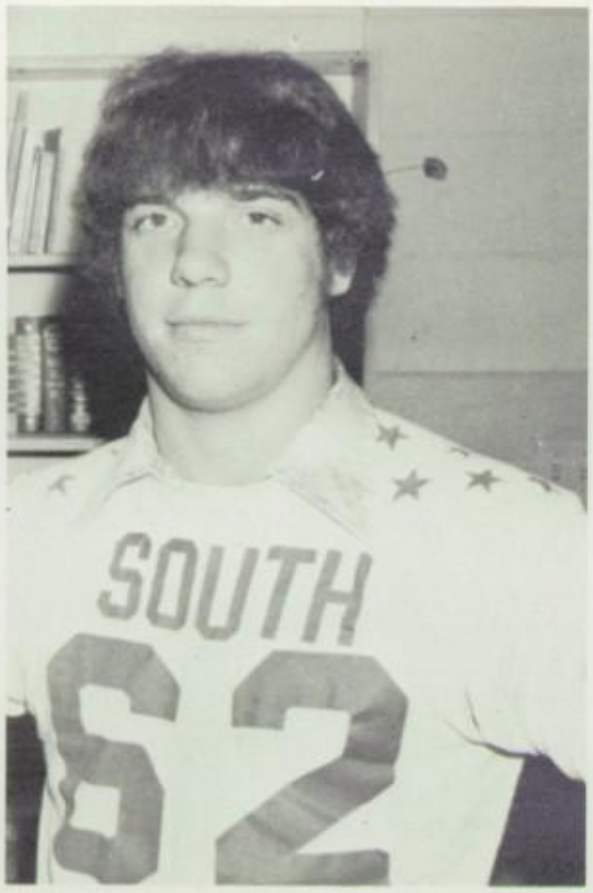




On May 14, the Class of '76 boarded a chartered bus at 1 a.m., for their long-awaited Senior Trip. The trip proved to be a great week of "Fun in the Sun" for all of the Seniors.

After spending one day at Disney World, the Seniors traveled to Daytona where they spent the remainder of the week. On Friday, May 20, the Seniors again boarded the bus for the Journey back to Rebul. Accompanying the class were Jean and Joe Bardin, and Mike and Shirley Williams who served as chaperones.

SENIOR MEMORIES



Attending Rebul Academy has taught me to share. I have learned to care about my friends, teachers and their feelings. I've learned to care about myself and try to set a good example for others. Growing up is what Rebul has really meant to me, because I've done a lot of it. Learning to make wise decisions, being mature about losing and being able to take it when everything looked dark. Thanks Rebul for what you have meant to me.

SENIORS PAY TRIBUTE TO SPONSOR

You are a minor where in I see
Myself–as I am, and as I should be.
I talk and you listen–that's all you do,
And yet I see in the eyes of you
The pattern of life fall into place–
The truth reflected in your face.

The 1976 Resumé has been prepared in the spirit of our nation's Bicentennial Celebration. The Resume Staff realizes the importance of preserving student life at Rebul Academy in words and pictures. We have recorded the joys, disappointments, victories and defeats and have attempted to recreate the changes that have occurred on campus this year. Our desire is that this book will not only bring back memories but will also remind you in later years of friends you loved and of the ideals you believed in as a student at Rebul Academy. I must say thank you to those who have helped in the production of the '76 Resumé and to Miss Hosey and Mr. E.E. Hood for their help and encouragement. I would also like to thank the faculty and students for all their help and cooperation and for the interest they have shown in the Resumé.

With pride, we present the 1976 Resumé.

Sincerely yours,

Susan McMurchy

THANK YOU!!

This year, a group of Rebul students participated in the Academic Betterment Competition held at Canton Academy. The ABC tests were given in various junior and high school subjects. All students who participated in this competition received certificates of merit. Those who placed first, second, or third received special recognition. They are pictured at left: Deedy McCrory, English IV; Karen Curtis, Shorthand; Phyllis Woodard, English II; and Beth Harris, Home Economics.
